1936 - 1938**

From Michael:

Leonard was working with food stock and grocery goods loading the trucks carts and trailers that would deliver supplies to the general area around Boston. The JJ Pearce company would become one of the largest grocery outfits to provide goods and supplies for Americans living on the East coast of the United states. (currently owned by Kraft food)

It appears Leonard had made enough money after working a couple of years, he got a car and drove to Orlando after graduating high school in 1936.
